URBAN BIKE EXPLORERS

Trail Notes

Mandurah is the perfect city to explore by bike, it is mostly flat terrain and there are plenty of shared paths and dedicated cycle lanes. Start your journey at the Mandurah Visitor Centre.

1. Mandurah Visitor Centre

- From the Mandurah Visitor Centre, after you have checked out the amazing 'Welcome to Country' mural by artists Peta & Corey Ugle inside the Mandurah Visitor Centre, head south along the Eastern Foreshore (2).

2. Mandurah Eastern Foreshore

- Ride along the Eastern Foreshore stopping at the playground, the Heart sculpture and the Kwillena Gabi Estuary Pool. Continue south until you reach Tuckey Lane (in between 5 and 8 Mandurah Tce) where you will find the Floral Swing Mural.

- Continue south along the Eastern Foreshore and under the Mandurah Bridge (Pinjarra Road). After you emerge on the other side of the bridge, take a left to reach the Mandurah Community Museum (3).

3. Mandurah Community Museum

- Head back to the Foreshore and continue south (parallel to Soldiers Cove Tce). At the end of Soldiers Cove Tce, take a left onto Heron St. At the end of Heron St, turn right onto Leslie St. Take a right onto Waterside Dr and follow until you reach the cycle path that takes you under the Mandurah Rd bridge. Once on the other side of the bridge take a left to arrive at Osprey Park (4).

4. Osprey Park

- Cycle north along the pathway. Cross Egret Point Rd into Samphire Cove Reserve. Spend some time cycling/walking around the pathways of Samphire Cove (5).

5. Samphire Cove

- Travel along Egret Point Rd, which will turn into Leisure Way. Just before reaching Old Coast Rd, turn right onto the pathway that runs parallel. Cross Leeward Entrance and take a left to cross over Old Coast Rd. Continue north along the pathway that runs parallel to Old Coast Rd. After crossing over the canals on your left will be Sutton's Homestead (6).

6. Sutton's Homestead

- Continue your journey north. Cross over Mary St into the Western Foreshore. Head left along the pathway. On your left, just after Amity Cove, you will find Hall's Cottage (7).

7. Hall's Cottage

- Jump back onto the path and follow until the end, take a left and cross through the Western Foreshore carpark. Here you will find the War Memorial (8).

8. Mandurah War Memorial

- Head back to the carpark, but before crossing over the carpark take a left and travel south along the path in front of the waters edge. This path will take you to the Meeting Place artwork (9) next to the Skate park.

9. Meeting Place Artwork

- Turn left onto the Western end of the bridge's footpath where you'll find a 'Welcome to Country' translated into English. Cross the bridge back to the Eastern Foreshore.

10. Mandurah Bridge

- Once on the Eastern Foreshore side of the bridge, you'll find the Noongar version of the 'Welcome to Country'.

Mandurah Visitor Centre

Entry is by gold coin donation. Open Tuesday to Sunday.

Osprey Park

This big adventure and nature-based playground is located on the waters edge and is the perfect place to play, picnic, BBQ and even fish. There's also a sandy beach perfect for having a splash.

Mandurah Community Museum

Hall's Cottage

Built in the early 1830s by Henry Edward Hall who was the first person to develop a fishing industry in Mandurah.

The museum located in Hall's Cottage is open on Sundays.

Mandurah War Memorial

Designed by award winning architects Hames Sharley in 2005. The monument symbolises events at ANZAC Cove.

The Heart

Samphire Cove

Located on the north-western side of the Peel Inlet, the reserve includes scenic boardwalks, two bird hides and an information shelter.

Sutton's Homestead

A charming little cottage built in 1881, that showcases what it was like in the old days.

Mandurah Eastern Foreshore

Cycle alongside the estuary. Stop along the way at the kids playground, shady picnic spots and/or utilise the BBQ facilities.

Get Instagramming with the 3D Art including 'The Heart' and 'Floral Swing Mural'.

Meeting Place

Meeting Place

Mandurah's traditional name 'Mandjoogoordap' means 'meeting place of the heart'. The 8-metre-tall artwork reflects Mandurah's identity and celebrates the connection people have to the Old Bridge, the estuary and the waterways.

Mandurah Bridge

Originally built in 1894, then rebuilt in 1954 and then completely replaced in 2017. The Mandurah Bridge on Pinjarra Road is an iconic local landmark.
